'NO AMERICAN IN SIBERIA ANXIOUS TO RETURN'-BAKER

Makes Statement to House Investigating Committee

WASHINGTON, July 18. — While a thousand Czecho-Slovak soldiers veterans of campaigns in Russia and Siberia, were assembling before the capitol today preparatory to a march up Pennsylvania Avenue and review by President Wilson, a house war department investigating committee demanded of Secretary Baker by what authority they had been brought to this country. The committe told the secretary they wanted to know why it was that many thousands American soldiers in Europe "anxiously awaiting an opportunity to come home" the transportation facilities had been used to bring the soldiers of another nation here. The members also asked how much the movement of the soldiers would cost the country, how many more were to come, and who had authorized the action.

Secretary Baker answered the questions in detail, declaring there was "not a single American soldier in Siberia anxiously awaiting a chance to return."

So far as transportation facilities was concerned, he said, they could all be returned immediately. All men there he added, were being replaced with recruits from this country.

Arrangements for the transportation of the Czecho-Slovaks were made in Europe, Mr. Baker said, probably by the supreme war council.

Great Britain had arranged to take care of half of the troops and the United States the remainder, he said.

Mr. Baker said the war department was paying the cost of transporting the men across the continent and for all the supplies they needed. The Czecho-Slovak government had agreed he said to reimburse the United States out of the funds advanced by President Wilson for all expense incurred. The War Department also had agreed, he said to return thru this country 1,900 more of the CzechoSlovak soldiers now in Siberia.

RENEW WARNING OF APPROACHING CRISIS

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Witnesses testifying from their experience in operating traction lines since the beginning of the present era of high prices told the federal electric railways commission again today the story of failure to make ends meet in the industry and renewed the warning of an approaching crisis unless public sentiment permits the general collection of greater revenues for their services. Manufacturers of electrical railway equipment joined in the hearings and gave details of the enhanced costs the companies must bear. By securing testimony bearing up results in Scranton and Altoona, Pennsylvania, Portland, Maine and Wilmington, Delaware, the railways laid before the commission evidence designed to show that higher fares had solved the problem in localities where tried. Francis S. Sisson, vice-president of the Guaranty Trust company of New York ascribed most of the difficulties of the street railways to a decline of 50 per cent since 1914 in the purchasing power of a dollar.

HALT 89 DIVISION RE-ORGANIZATION

TOPEKA, Kas., July 18.—Reorganization of the 89th division as a regular army unit in recognition of the division's work in France has been temporarily halted by the action of congress in reducing the proposed size of the regular army, it was stated by Camp Funston officials last night. The 89th composed of national army men from Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and other middle west states was the first division trained at Funston. At the time of its muster out announcement was made that it would be recognized as a regular army division.

DESIGNED GUN WITH 100 MILE RANGE

PARIS, Thursday, July 17.—While giving evidence before a committee of the chamber of deputies investigating the Briey question, M. L. Bourgeois, chief engineer of the navy department said that at the time Paris was being bombarded by German long range guns, he had designed a cannon with a range of 100 miles which could be put in position in one hour.

The gun was ready for action at the time the armistice was signed, he said.

Stop Virtually All Building In Chicago

CHICAGO, July 18.—Altho contractors and union carpenters showed no disposition to compromise tonight after virtually all building operations, estimated at $50,000,000 or more in value had stopped with approximately 100,000 workers idle, the Building Trades Council's head, Simon O'Donnell announced today that his organization never had authorized the strike of carpenters and others. He said the council would begin consideration of the situation.

The Building Construction Employes' association stopped all work this morning after the striking carpenters, 16,000 in number, had failed to respond to an ultimatum to return at 8 a. m.

In addition to the 100,000 workmen idle, probably 50,000 others employed by supply companies, are expected to be affected by tomorrow.

The carpenters have held out for $1 an hour, altho their contract with two years to run, called for 80 cents. The employers' offer of 92½ cents was rejected. The ultimatum followed. Strikes of hod carriers and other building laborers preceded the action of the carpenters and most of the difficulties were settled. The contractors now say the question of the validity of contracts will be determined.

The "lockout," as the union men term it, was participated in by the 1,000 members of the Building Construction Employers' association. 500 carpenter contractors not included in the association.

Late in the day 200 supply dealers ordered deliveries to stop and as a result 1,300 mason, plumbing and painting contractors will halt their contracts at noon today making idle an additional 15,000 men.

REDUCE POSTAGE RATE ON AIR MAIL

WASHINGTON, July 18—Postmaster General Burleson today reduced the postage rate on airplane mail to 2 cents an ounce, the regular rate for first class matter and placed the air mail service on the same footing with all other means of mail transportation.

The effect of the order, Second Assistant Postmaster General Otto Prager explained, is to place all first class mail on the same basis and the question of time in mailing will determine whether or nt a letter will go by airplane instead of by train. Letters in transit which miss train connections will be forwarded by airplane to make up the lost time.

It was stated that there was no guarantee under the new arrangement that a letter would go by airplane but that persons might go to postoffice stations where airplane mail sacks were made up and request that their letters be put in these sacks.

Special airplane stamps will be abandoned and letters need not be marked "via air post."

PROPOSE CHICAGO AS COUNTRY'S AIR CENTER

CHICAGO, July 18.—Chicago was proposed as the air center of the country at a meeting today of the Aero club of Illinois, Chicago plane commission and aldermanic aviation committee representatives.

CONVICT TWO FOR COMPLICITY IN LYNCHING

Prison Terms Given Two—28 Others Enter Pleas of Guilty

BAY MINETTE, Ala., July 18.—For the first time in the history of Alabama convictions and pleas of guilty were entered in a lynching case in which a white man was the victim of a mob when, in the Baldwin county court two men were convicted today of complicity in the murder. They were given penitentiary sentences while 28 other members of the same band entered pleas of guilty. Ten of those pleading guilty were given fines on sentences to hard labor while the cases of the other eighteen will be taken up when court reconvenes Monday.

The case was that of Frank Foukal, who was shot to death in his cell in jail, where he was being held on a murder charge. Local authorities immediately began seeking those responsible for the lynching with the result that more than 30 persons were arrested.

Sim Andrews and Louis Bishop, the two men convicted, were given penitentiary sentences of ten and fifteen years respectively. One other defendant was acquitted on a plea of insanity and a fourth was adjudged insane before coming to trial.

PLACE EMBARGO ON COASTWISE FREIGHT

NEW YORK, July 18.—A freight embargo on coastwise traffic was announced today by the coastwise steamship companies operating under federal control as a result of the strike of seamen and engineers along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. The order for the embargo was forwarded to shipping points by the United States Railroad administration.

The embargo has been foreshadowed for several days as a consequence of the rapid piling up of great quantities of frieght, much of it perishable at Atlantic and Gulf ports thru the tying up of ships by the strikers. G. H. Brown, secretary of the seamen's union, claimed today that the entire shipping of the country would be virtually tied up within two weeks if the strugle continued.

The disorganization of the merchant service thru sailors deserting the coast for the harvest fields also was predicted by the union leaders. They asserted that seamen were leaving this port in droves for the farms where harvest hands were being paid $5 and $6 a day with board and lodging. The renewal of disturbances today with an attack on a Bowery employment office by strikers who alleged the office was recruiting strike breakers stirred the police to greater vigilance along the water front.

Seamen's boarding houses are being particularly watched as the strikers are said to have been incensed by reports that the places were being used as strike breaking agencies.

RE-ESTABLISH PRE WAR RATE TO GERMANY

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The pre-war rate of 12 cents a pound on parcel post packages to Germany was re-established today by the postoffice department. The limit of weight on such packages is 11 pounds.

Announcement also was made that the domestic letter rate of two cents an ounce in effect when mail went directly from one country to the other would be re-established as soon as direct steamship lines have been restored. Exchange of money orders with Germany will not be resumed pending the negotiation of a new treaty, which officials said was made necessary by the decline in the value of the German mark

London Gives Gen. Pershing Sword of Honor

LONDON, July 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—Great Britain's peace celebration began informally today with many ceremonies, most of which were in honor of General John J. Pershing, and the American troops who will participate in the victory parare Saturday.

A large part of the population stopped work today and filled the parks and streets, watching the many contingents of American, British and allied soldiers and sailors marching about and the processions headed by General Pershing and Marshal Foch of France on their way to various functions in their honor.

It was chiefly an American day. General Pershing's program began with a review of American troops in Hyde Park, where he conferred the distinguished service medal on eighty British officers, more than half of whom were generals.

The ceremony was attended by the Prince of Wales, Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig and other celebrities.

The chief event of the day took place at the Guild Hall, where the city chamberlain presented a sword of honor to General Pershing. At the Guild Hall General Pershing delivered an address of thangs for the honors given him.

After the presentation of the sword General Pershing went to the mansion house where he again responded to calls for a speech when he appeared on the balcony above a square crowded with people. He was accompanied by Sir Horace Marshal, the lord mayor of London, and the mayor's staff.

A luncheon given in the mansion house was attended by three hundred. There were addresses by the Lord Mayor, Winston Spencer Churchill, war secretary, General Pershing and John W. Davis, American ambassador to Great Britain.

The day's program had as its last event a dinner in General Pershing's honor in the parliament building.

TO DELIVER SHIP'S PAPERS BY AIRPLANE

NEW YORK, July 18.—An experiment in the delivery by airplane of ship's papers from this port to outgoing vessels is planned in the near future by the postoffice department it was announced today by Postmaster Patten.

The step contemplates a speeding up of trans-Atlantic mails and the first test probably will be made with the White Star Liner Adriatic when she sails from New York, August 9.

Previous demonstrations, in which flying boats have dropped pouches on the decks of liners while many miles out from port, have convinced officials of the practicability of releasing a ship immediately on loading and not waiting for the papers to be fully prepared. These papers it is pointed out, could be delivered by airplane while the ship was at sea and thus many hours and considerable money would be saved.

Attempts To Repeal Daylight Saving Fails

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Renewed attempts of house Republican leaders to repeal daylight saving thru a rider to the 1920 agricultural appropriation bill, were defeated in the house today when Republican opponents of repeal joined with the Democrats in voting to eliminate the repeal provisions. Immediately afterward without a dissenting vote the agricultural bill carrying $33,900,000 was passed and sent to the senate.

Final action on the daylight saving repeal came after a day marked by sharp political clashes in both houses and in committee.

Democrats, including those favoring repeal refused to join in making the repeal rider in order, and in speeches on the floor attacked the Republicans as "playing politics." Republican leaders, however, insisted that the rider alone would assure early passage of the agricultural bill which Democrats said was certain to be vetoed again by President Wilson if it included the repeal provision.

Opponents to inserting the repeal provision gained strength with each vote in the house the final action being by a vote of 203 to 171. This followed two tentative votes which favored the elimination of the rider, 144 to 125 and 165 to 123. A few Democrats voted with the majority Republican members. The senate, regarded as heavily in favor of repeal now has before it a house bill to repeal the daylight saving law. The senate it was said by congessional leaders may pass and send to the president the separate repeal measure.

HUNS TRY TO KILL AMERICAN OFFICER

COBLENZ, July 18.—By The Associated Press.—Two Germans attempted last night to assassinate Major George Cockeriel, provost marshal of the American forces in Germany. The major was injured. The Germans escaped after firing several shots.

The attempt to assassinate Major Cockriel was deliberate and premeditated. Cockriel is on the German secret list of "marked Americans," and during the past week has received five threatening letters one of which gave him only 24 hours to live.

Major Cockriel, accompanied by a military police officer was walking along a dark street of Coblenz at 10 o'clock last night when he met two Germans who began firing as soon as they had passed the Americans, blazing away over their shoulders as they ran. This probably accounts for their poor markmanship as neither of the Americans was hurt, altho several shots were fired. The Germans proved better runners than marksmen, as they made good their escape despite a hot chase.

GREEK GOVERNMENT DECORATES DR. BLACK

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The Greek government has decorated 33 officers and two nurses of the American Red Cross mission to Greece, according to a cable message received today at Red Cross headquarters. EXAMINE FORD ON CONTENTS OF EDITORIAL

Witness Completes Week on Stand Without Sign of Letup

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., July 18.—Aaltho Henry Ford today completed a week on the witness stand in his libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune, Elliott G. Stevenson, for the defendant, who began questioning him last Monday showed no sign of reaching a conclusion. The examination of the witness on the contents of the alleged libelous editorial in the Tribune on June 23rd,1916, headed "Ford Is An Anarchist," was the important feature of the day. Alfrd Lucking, senior counsel for the plaintiff, characterized the examination as "brutal" and the witness, pressed to admit the editorial charge of being an ignorant idealist and reminded that on previous occasions he had admitted it, remarked:

"You are a good enough attorney to get me to say this or that but it would not be in my mind"

"Haven't I tried to be fair with you, Mr. Ford?"

"Absolutely."

"I have not tried to mislead you?"

"No, sir."

Charges Brutality.

It was here that Mr. Lucking made his charge of brutality adding:

"You take a modest witness, Mr. Stevenson, and try to pound him into saying that he is an ignorant idealist. It seems to me that this should be left to argument. It is not right to pound a man of Mr. Ford's type, retiring and modest, who doesn't like to appear in public and push him into saying things against himself. He is the easiest man in the world to get to say a thing.

"Have I been pounding you, Mr. Ford," asked Mr. Stevenson.

"Mr. Lucking is talking thru his hat isn't he?"

"He is talking as tho you may," was the way the stenographer caught the reply of Mr. Ford, who speaks in so low and muffled a tone that his own lawyers rarely hear him.

Nearly two hours was consumed while Mr. Ford was excused from the stand in reading into the record testimony of General Erasmus Weaver, 1916 before the house committee on military affairs. It bore on one of the Ford advertisements written by Theodore Delavigne, formerly peace publicity manager, in which part quotation made the general appear to state that with 11,000 additional men the coast defense system would be adequate. It appeared from further reading that General Weaver admitted the guns were obsolete, the fortifications too far apart, and that without a mobile army, they could be taken by landing parties operating from the rear.

Starts Reading Editorial.

After reminding the witness he had in previous testimony defined an anarchist as a bomb thrower, the lawyer began reading the Tribune editorial asking Mr. Ford to stop him when he came to anything about bomb throwing. Mr. Ford said he could stop at the headline and explained that "one of the objects of this case is to have people stick to the truth a little more behind their headlines.

Mr. Stevenson made another attempt to get witness to confess that he was an ignorant man as, the lawyer said, was shown by his inability to answer questions concerning cardinal points of American history, the army and navy, and similar matters. Mr. Ford turned to the judge:

"Does he want me to say that I don't know anything about government?"

The court remained silent and Mr. Stevenson continued:

"I have asked you a number of question and I do not want to press you as to whether you are a well informed man, competent to educate the public or an ignorant man, who ought not to undertake to educate the people, but in view of what you have said, you would not question that "ignorant" is a proper characterization of you?"

Mr. Lucking jumped to his feet and said:

"That is objected to as brutal an inhuman."

Mr. Ford ignored this and remarked:

"As I said, Mr. Stevenson, I am ignorant of most things."

Considers Whole Article Bad.

In one comment on the editorial Mr. Ford said he considered the whole article as bad but Mr. Stevenson continued to refer to the fact that nothing was said about bomb throwing or overturning the government, amidst innumerable objections.

When the lawyer read the statement that "he takes the men who stand between him and service and punishes them for the service which protects him," Mr. Ford said that it was not true.

"Do you claim that you did not discourage men from military service?

"Yes, sir."

"But you boasted that as a result of your anti-preparedness efforts only ten of your 20,000 employes attended a militia encampment?"

"But I don't know about that, Mr. Stevenson. It was in the Delavigue booklet. I hired him to be my expert on those things and told him to state only facts. I assumed that he carried out instructions. I have no personal recollection of such a boast."

New Pacific Fleet To Sail This Morning

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Officers and members of the crews of the newly organized Pacific fleet were wished Godspeed and a safe and pleasant vovage by Secretary Daniels in a message sent to Admiral Hugh Rodman, fleet commander, on the eve of the departure of the Armada from Hampton Roads for the west coast. The secretary in his message drew a vivid comparison between the mighty force that will steam out from between the Virginia Capes tomorrow morning and the fleet which the United States sent around the world eleven years ago. Attention was called by the secretary to the fact that the force sent on the history making voyage around the world, the mightiest fleet the United States had ever gathered together previous to that time was almost insignificant in comparison with the new Pacific force. He commented on the fact that the new west coast fleet will have a tonnage more than twice as great as that of the ships assembled in 1907 under command of Admiral Robley D. Evans, and said that while the most powerful vessel in the fleet that went around the world mounted four twelve inch guns with a maximum effective range of 10,000 yards, the New Mexico, Admiral Rodman's flagship and several other vessels of the Pacific fleet, had batteries of 12 fourteen-inch guns capable of penetrating armor at 20,000 yards.

Mr. Daniels in commenting on the advances in naval science achieved since the fleet went around the world, pointed out that while the 1907 force was greatly restricted in its cruising redius by reason of using coal for fuel, Admiral Rodman's vessels for the most part were oil burners, while the New Mevico is electrically propelled, an innovation almost undreamed of in Admiral Evans' time.

VETERANS PARADE IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, July 18. — Lashed and soaked by a driving rain storm, a thousand Czecho-Slovak veterans of the world war, invalided home from fighting in Siberia, paraded up Pennsylvania Avenue late today and were viewed from the portico of the white house by President Wilson who delivered a short address, congratulating them on their achievements. It was the largest procession of foreign fighting troops the American capital had seen and the most picturesque.

All veterans of five years' fighting, the eldest was a man of seventy with stooped shoulders and venerable beard, the youngest were only lads.

The veterans, who came across the Pacific on their way homeward will sail from Newport News Sunday on their way to Bohemia.

They sang their native songs as they marched along with swinging strides, apparently unmindful after five years of hardships on the battle fields of the veritable clouds of water that played over them. Motor ambulances from Walter Reed hopital carried 40 too badly maimed to march.

The men's voting will be completed tomorrow.

WILSON 'VERY CHEERFUL' OVER SENATE OUTLOOK

Confers With Four G. O. P. Senators at White House

WASHINGTON, July 18.—President Wilson talked over the peace treaty with four more Republican senators at the white house today and later he went to the capitol and discussed the entire senate situation with Senator Hitchcock, leader of the administration forces in the senate fight.

The Republican senators asked for information about many features of the treaty and Senator Hitchcock told the president of other points that have come into dispute during senate debate. At the end of the day of conferences Mr. Wilson told a group of correspondents he was satisfied that to reach a solution it was only necessary to "clarify counsel."

Many Misunderstandings.

There has been many misunderstandings about the treaty the president said, adding that some of the constructions placed on it seemed to him evident misinterpretations.

Senator McNary, Oregon, one of the Republicans who went to the white house said first impressions about the Shantung settement had been softened by his talk with the president, while Senator Capper, Kansas, said Mr. Wilson had given him much new and pertinent information on that subject. Senator Kellogg, Minn., and Kenyon, Iowa, the others who saw the president declined afterward to talk. Senator McNary has been a supporter of the league of nations, while the other three never have taken a definite stand regarding it.

"I found myself practically in accord with the president regarding the principles of the league," said Mr. McNary, "tho I had and still have certain opinions regarding the effect of reservations. I shall announce these opinions in my address next week in the senate."

"Regarding Shantung the president presented facts."

"The president was very ready to give information about the negotiations, "Mr. Capper said, "and he has a great deal of it, especially regarding Shantung, that is to the point. However, I have not changed my opinion that certain reservations are necessary in ratifying the treaty."

Says Wilson "Very Cheerful"

Senator Hitchcock described the president as feeling "very cheerful" over the senate outlook, tho he said Mr. Wilson did not discuss what the Republican senators had said at the white house. The Nebraska senator said he had told the president it was assured that the treaty could not be amended.

One result of the day's conferences was to strengthen the report that the president soon might send to the senate a special message regarding Shantung. Some of the white house callers during the past two days have gained the impression that some sort of declaration on the subject certainly would be forthcoming and opinion seemed general that it probably would take the form of a senate message, perhaps delivered by the president in person.

Some of the Republican senators have told Mr. Wilson certain reservations would have to be accepted to secure ratification of the treaty, but Mr. Hitchcock said tonight he did not believe reports that the president would be willing to accept such reservations providing they did not vitiate the treaty provisions.

"We shall continue our fight," said the administration leader, "for ratification of the treaty without a single change."

Would Declare Peace Status.

The senate worked most of the day on the sundry civil appropriation bill, but issues of the treaty fight were brought to the surface during the session by Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, who offered an amendment interpreted by administration senators as proposing to declare a status of peace with Germany. There was a brief debate and then the reference to a peace status went out on a point of order.

The flurry resulted in a quorum call, however, and hleped break up a meeting at which the foreign relations committee had planned to continue its preliminary reading of the treaty next. Despairing of concluding the reading this week, the committee decided to adjourn until Monday. The senate also adjourned until Monday, when debate on the treaty will be resumed. At his conferences with Republican senators today President Wilson is understood to have taken a definite stand on entering the league of nations with any idea of withdrawing as soon as the immediate issues of the war have been finally settled. He also is said to have re-emphasized his conviction that Article Ten of the league covenant

Nauvoo is again coming to the front in the newspapers with a vital question. The ancient city now has forty-four wine cellars and a big crop of grapes coming They are anticipating trouble in caring for the new crop and dare not add to their wine cellars. Prospect for another "Nauvoo War."

An item is appearing in many newspapers to the effect that the farmers are demanding repeal of the wheat guarantee law which fixes the price for this years crop. We doubt whether there is a farmer in Morgan county that would endorse repeal.

"Shantung was a price paid, and all of the world knows it. There is no statute of limitations against a wrong like that." This assertion was made in the senate Tuesday by Senator Lodge, chairman of the foreign relations committee.

Logan county gets the German cannon offered as a prize to the county which led in the Illinois division of Fifty-seven counties for over subscription to the five Liberty loans. The county's percentage of oversubscription was 146 per cent. They certainly deserved the cannon.

The president is said to admit that the Shantung settlement is not satisfactory, but that the conference was forced to accept it in preference to the danger of Japan joining with Germany. An agreement made under duress or threats is not usually held to be a legal one.

Richard Yates, congressman at large is out with a statement regarding his vote on the daylight saving law, and in justice to our representative we are glad to give it. He says: "Please do me the favor to state that your statement that I voted to sustain the president is an error. I voted to pass the repeal of the day light saving law over the veto. See the Congressional Record Monday the 15th, page 2689. "The explanation came even more promptly than expected.

At the banquet of the Womans Association of Commerce and the Federation of Business and Professional Woman's clubs held in St. Louis, a man was on the speakers' program and took occasion to acknowledge that the coming age is to be a woman's age, and to beg the ladies to be merciful and not go about the soberization of the world too quickly, saying it was fine to have a giants strength but tyranical to use it. Times do change.

Following charges by the Illinois state department of agriculture that butter, eggs, pork, and beef are being stored in unusual quantities, with a view of keeping prices up, federal officials, in Chicago admitted a duplex investigation of food conditions is now under way. The first phase of the investigation is to be by operatives of the department of justice and will go into all branches of food distribution in which existing high prices indicate profiteering. The second will deal exclusively with the cold storage products covered by the state agriculture department's charges.

Rippling Rhyms
By Walt Mason

Fishing.

I take my patent jointed pole,
which cost me quite a hefty roll,
and hie me to a sylvan nook, infested by a babbling brook, and there I sit, a patient scout, and fish, and fish, and fish for trout. Oh, my equipment's out of sight, in each detail exactly right. Through Walton's stuff I often toil; I study up the works of Hoyle, to see just what I ought to buy, what kind of bait, what sort of fly. My reel and sinkers and my line imported are, and vastly fine. I bought my raiment at a shop where sporting vestments are on top. And so I sit and fish, and think of what a princely dish we'll have at home when I return, with all the troutlets in the burn. But when at last I homeward go I have no speckled trout to show. I have a grouch, a temper sore, my costly rig, and nothing more. And meanwhile Johnson's freckled lad goes toiling homeward to his dad all burdened with a string of trout that weighs a ton, or thereabout. He caught them with a pole of pine to which was tied a cotton line. In agony my voice I lift, and ask you, whither do we drift? There's something wrong with congress, sirs, when anything like this occurs.

Matrimonial

Shaw-Lawless.

S. Arthur Shaw of St. Louis and Miss Nellie Lawless daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Lawless were united in marriage recently at St. Bartholomew's church Murrayville by the Rev. Father Edward Flynn.

The wedding was military in its appointments, the groom wearing the American Red Cross uniform and James T. Lawless the best man the regulation army uniform. Maurice Walsh, Messrs. John and Thomas Mandeville who served at the altar were also in military dress.

The altar was most tastefully decorated with American flags, flowers and bunting. The bride was attired in a handsome traveling suit of blue tricolette and wore a corsage bouquet of American beauty roses. Miss Anna Lawless was the bride's attendant. Music appropriate to the occasion was furnished by Misses Alma and Stella Flynn and Frank Flynn.

Following the ceremony the wedding party went to the home of the bride's parents where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw have gone to San Antonio, Texas, where Mr. Shaw was recently appointed director of the American Red Cross field activities. They will carry with them the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Kolp-Saunders.

James Rush Kolp of Battle Creek Iowa, and Miss Lida Hazel Saunders of Manilla, Iowa, were united in marriage at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, July 16. The ceremony was said at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Saunders, and was witnessed by a large company of relatives and friends of the young people. The impressive ceremony took place beneath a canopy of green arranged on the lawn of the Saunders home, the words uniting the lives of the two being spoken by the pastor of the Manilla Presbyterian church, of which the bride is a member.

The bride wore a charming gown of white georgette over white satin and carried a shower boquet of bride's roses. She wore a wedding veil of tulle. The maid of honor was Miss Katinka Nielson, who was arrayed in a pink gown and carried roses of the same hue.

The best man was Clarence O'Brecht, a college friend of the groom, and the ring bearer and ribbon bearers were the small nephews of the bride.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party passed from the house to the lawn, and following the ceremony the company joined in hearty congratulations.

Afterward a four course dinner was served at the Saunders home to sixty guests. During the serving of the dinner a delightful musical program was rendered. Among the selections given by Miss Mildred Ivey, cousin of the bride, was a composition by Mrs. Kolp, mother of the groom, written for this particular occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Kolp left later in the day for Chicago and after a brief visit there will come to this city, later proceeding to St. Paul and other northern cities for a bridal tour.

They will be at home after September 1 at Battle Creek, in a home which the groom has recently purchased and furnished.

The bride, as stated, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Saunders of Manilla, long time residents of that city, where Mr. Saunders is the president of the First National bank. Mrs. Kolp was educated in the public schools of Manilla and later was a student at Morningside college, Sioux City, receiving a degree in both literature and expression with the class of 1918.

Mr. Kolp is the son of Mrs. Lucy D. Kolp of this city and spent the earlier years of his life here. He attended the local public schools and later was graduated from the Jacksonville high school. Following a four years' course at Morningside college he accepted a position with the Security National bank at Sioux City. He is now serving as assistant cashier of the Farmers Savings bank at Battle Creek, Iowa. The young man has many friends in this city and all will unite in extending the best of wishes at this time.

CITIZENS EXPRESS VIEWS ON CITY'S FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

Since the publication of the city's financial statement on July 11 there has been a great deal of discussion as to the best method to follow to pay the city's indebtedness. The administration has asked that citizens discuss the question freely and offer any advice or suggestions which may occur to them. The Journal is glad to give space to the following statements from a number of Jacksonville citizens bearing on the subject of the city's financial problems:

C. J. Deppe.

"Yes, I have given some thought to the matter of the city's indebtedness and what ought to be done to take care of it. Naturally I look at it in the same light that I would a private business—if money is owed, by all means it should be paid; and if the business is to continue and there is not sufficient revenue, than proper steps should be taken to provide that revenue. It is to be regretted that the city is in its present condition, but it must be faced squarely and that right soon. I have every confidence in the present city administration and think that they are going at our problems in the right way. I am strongly in favor of the early completion of our new water project, including the necessary filtration plant. Pure water is a vital need, for the health of Jacksonville as well as for its future growth.

"If it is legal to issue bonds I believe we should vote an issue sufficient to take care of our debts, finish up our water projects and put the city in good shape, with a provision for a sinking fund for their retirement. Then we can get some where. Jacksonville can better stand this added burden than the odium which comes from unpaid bills and lack of the common necessities for city life.

"The city administration should see that there is a careful checking up in order to ascertain exactly where we stand so that all proper needs will be covered. Then by all means I believe that the public utilities using our streets and alleys and private property should be at once compelled to take out franchises and pay the city its just dues. It is possible if this is done, that with the additional revenue under the new tax law, we will be able to be self-supporting, but if more revenue is needed there should be no objection to any reasonable tax added by the city, provided that tax is fair and equitable to all."

G. M. Luttrell.

"I am in favor of a bond issue of sufficient size to take care of our needs—floating indebtedness, filtration plant, etc., if it is found that this legally can be done. I think it the best plan in any such emergency. It gets quicker action and enables the city to go ahead, and I sincerely hope nothing will arise to cause a setback at this time, when we seem really to have taken on a genuine impetus toward better things. With the increase in taxation recently allowed, a careful and economical administration such as I am sure we are going to enjoy, and the impartial and positive collection of all just personal and property taxes, I believe that the retirement of any bonds issued can be provided for, and our city be run in an acceptable manner. I mean to include in this that our public utilities should be required to obtain franchises at once and pay the proper revenue to the city thereafter.

"As to occupational taxes. I am only in favor of such when every one is treated alike. I do not believe that it is fair that one line of business pay a tax and another go free. That is class legislation and certain to be unpopular. Personally I don't believe that such a tax will be necessary. But if later it is found to be, then such tax should be applied to all businesses and professions and be based on the annual business done by each. Otherwise, it should be removed from the several that are now taxed. I am confident that our new city administration will find a fair and just way out, and believe that every right minded citizen will do his part without a murmur."

Tom Duffner.

"I cannot see any other way for us to pay our debts and get where we ought to be and want to be, than by a bond issue. As to the legality of such a proceeding, I don't know, but if it can be done, I am in favor of it. Once on our financial feet I believe that our ordinary taxes (which will include the increase recently allowed by law) and the payment of a just tax by the utilities which are using our streets and alleys, arrangements for which should be begun at once, will take care of our needs. Any bond issue should be large enough to properly finish our new water plant and include a filtration plant.

"I am not in favor of occupational or vehicle taxes, yet if such is found to be necessary for an emergency period I should gladly pay mine, provided such a tax was applied to and collected from all impartially. However, I don't think any such plan will be nessary if present taxes are honestly assessed and fairly collected. No bonds would be needed under such conditions. I wish we could find some way to collect the fair and legitimate tax of this city and county."

John Cherry.

"I have been away from the city for the past week and have not had an opportunity to read the published statement of the city's financial condition, nor the interviews that have been published. However, generally speaking, and as I understand the situation and needs, I believe a bond issue to be the only proper thing, if it be legal. We must not lose sight of what is necessary to insure this city plenty of pure drinking water, and any other conveniences that a city of this size should enjoy, and do now whatever is needful to bring it about. If we don't do it now we will be in the same old condition, only growing worse, for another forty years."

G. A. Muehlhausen.

"Yes, sir, by all means a bond issue, if it can be arranged, and one big enough to take care of all our needs. This city is big enough and rich enough and old enough to buy what it should have and to take care of bonds, if they are required, to provide it. And this city should pay its debts, too; no right to quibble about that. Filtered water and plenty of it has been our lack for fifty years. Must we wait another fifty? We have the right sort of men in office to go ahead with our affairs, but not even they can make bread without the ingredients. Its up to us as loyal citizens to agree to do our part in this emergency. I believe the old town is on the right track now and that we are due for a big progressive stride ahead. Let's do nothing to stop it. The new taxes that we are allowed, honestly collected, coupled with the taxes our public utilities should be compelled to pay, I believe will take care of our operating expense and provide a reasonable sinking fund for the retirement of bonds. Whatever is needed for the good of Jacksonville now, let's do it."

A. R. Taylor.

"I am willing to leave it all to the present city administration and to back up what they find is necessary to do. If a bond issue is found to be the thing, I am for it—I am for Jacksonville, now and all the time. I don't approve some of the things done in the past, but they are past, and it's no time now to kick and grumble about that, and say that this, that or the other thing should have been done; it wasn't, so that's all there is to it. We have a problem, and the future to consider. Let's tackle it in the right spirit and we will be astonished at how easily just what we want and need will be worked out."

Don't Experiment with Catarrh; It Often Leads to Serious Trouble

Will Never Be Cured by Local Treatment with Sprays and Douches

Catarrh is a condition of the ood and can not be cured by al applications of sprays and uches; this has been proven by e thousands who have vainly re-ted to this method of treat-nt.

Catarrh should not be neglect- or experimented with. The ong treatment is valuable time st, during which the disease is tting a firmer hold upon its tim, and making it more diffi-lt for even the proper treat-nt to accomplish results.

Though catarrh makes its first pearance in the nostrils, throat d air passages, the disease be-mes more and more aggravated and finally reaches down into the lungs, and everyone recognizes the alarming condition that results when the lungs are affected. Thus catarrh may be the forerunner of that most dreaded and hopeless of all diseases, consumption.

No local treatment affords permanent relief. Experience has taught that S. S. S. is the one remedy which attacks the disease at its source, the blood, and produces satisfactory results in even the worst cases. Catarrh sufferers are urged to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. It is sold by all druggists. You are invited to write to the Medical Department for expert advice as to how to treat your own case. Address Swift Specific Co., 436 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Meeting of Executive Committee

Pres. Chas. S. Black has called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Morgan County Farmers Club for 8:00 o'clock p. m. new time Saturday, July 19th, at the Farmers Bureau office in the court house. This meeting will decide in regard to the character of the annual picnic, approve the annual financial report required by the State Leadea's office and quite likely take some action with reference to cooperation with the Sangamon County Farmers Bureau in choosing two delegates to the state constitutional convention. The farmers organizations of the state are not inclined to let other organizations do all the work when it comes to choosing delegates to the convention. The farmers of the state may be expected to ask for greater recognition in a new constitution than was given in the old.

Matter of Seed Wheat.

The elevators of our county are promising their hearty co-operation in the matter of urging farmers to secure good seed while threshing is in progress. Henry Perbix of Chapin, showed the county agent some very good seed wheat that he had laid aside for his own use. A part of this came from his own farm and some of it came from the farm of A. L. French. We cannot make the statement too emphatic that good seed wheat, free from injurious diseases, is going to be decidedly scarce in Morgan county this fall.

Soy Beans and Hogs.

We have made an especial effort this year to grow on the farms the seeds required for ordinary farm stock. Among other recommendations we have advised the planting of soy beans in the corn for hogging down. Last year some men followed our advice but stated that the hogs ate the corn and left the beans. A well trained hog will not do that way. Chas. A. Rowe says that our farmers ought to begin to pull soy beans and feed them to the hogs now. He says that when this is done the hogs will acquire a taste for them so that when they are turned in the corn field they will go for the beans in the way we want them to.

GOOD WHEAT YIELD.

One of the best yields of wheat so far recorded in the county is that made on the farm of O. B. and E. B. Heinl near Pisgah. One field of 50 acres averaged 35 bushels per acre and another field of 40 acres averaged 28 bushels. The latter field was badly down in places and some loss in harvesting is attributable to that fact on this tract.

Cake and the Housewife

Ordinary Bakery Cake

No wonder discriminating people avoid the use of ordinary bakery cake, except in emergencies. It lacks taste and individuality because every different kind is baked from the same mixture. It lacks quality because it is, in most cases, simply a side line to the bread business. The ingredients are generally poor because cheapness is sought rather than quality.

You know good taste in preferring your own cake to this ordinary kind.

Home Baked Cake

Is most delicious when baked by wives and mothers who, each time, strive to better their previous effort.

Of course the trouble, doubt and expense, is offset by a successfully baked cake, delicious and tasty. But there is not a woman living who would not gladly surrender the job if she were sure she could get a cake, equal in quality and deliciousness to that of her own baking.

Quality Baked Cake

Time and again is passed as home made cake.e The deception is easy because of the great similarity.

No better ingredients can be bought. The eggs are the freshest obtainable. The butter is pure. Each cake is the work of an expert baker.

The quality is there. The taste and deliciousness, together with the freshness, gives us the confidence to say that our cakes will stand the most severe comparison with the home baked.

must not be weakened if the league is to accomplish its purpose. Senator Capper said he saw no attempt on Mr. Wilson's part to influence senate opinion except as he might do so by presenting the facts back of the treaty provisions. The president's attitude was not a belligerent one, the Kansas senator added but rather reflected a desire to impart information and answer all questions that senators might put to him. Senator McNary described his talk with the president as "very pleasant" and very instructive in showing what diverse problems the peace conference had confronting it. The Oregon senator said most of their talk concerned Shantung and reservations, the latter subject drawing from the president an expression that the adoption of any reservations whatever would open the door to a like course on the part of the other nations and might tend to disrupt the whole league plan.

Invitations Not Issued.

Other Republican senators are expected to be invited to the white house on Monday, but so far as could be learned tonight the invitations had not yet been issued.

In his talk with Senator Hitchcock, Mr. Wilson is believed to have again stated his position that a two third vote would be required to write reservations into the ratification resolution. The opposition leaders have contended a majority would be sufficient, but Mr. Hitchcock said tonight that Vice-President Marshall the senate's presiding officer, was of the opinion that two-thirds was necessary. The president's conference with Mr. Hitchcock which took place in the president's capitol office lasted nearly an hour. The appointment had been made by telephone and it was nearly six o'colck when Mr. Wilson arrived. He saw no other senators at the capitol.

The Fall amendment which stated discussion of peace issues in the senate would have provided that "the status of peace between the former imperial German government and the United States of America being declared," no money appropriated in the sundry civil bill should be used to enforce the trading with the enemy act.

Senator Fall said his purpose was only to f acilitate trading with Germany while the peace treaty is pending. He asserted that a propaganda was bringing pressure to bear for ratification of the treaty so that full trade relations might be resumed and said his amendment would accomplish the same purpose without hastening ratification.

Administration senators however, immediately characterized the amendment as an effort to actually declare by "in direction" a status of peace. When the proposal was threatened with rejection on a point of order, Mr. Fall struck out the reference to a peace status and the senate voted down the amendment as it then stood, 33 to 27.

MRS. WILSON STOPPED BRUTAL TREATMENT

NEW YORK, July 18—Brutal treatment of American military prisoners in Paris was brought up with a sudden check when Mrs. Woodrow Wilson first heard of it, according to John W. Kehoe, a hospital superintendent of the Knights of Columbus who returned yesterday afternoon from France.

"When Mrs. Wilson first went to Paris, she was visiting base Hospital 57," said Mr. Kehoe in a report today to William P. Larkin, director of Knights of Columbus, overseas activities. She was called to the cot of a doughboy who displayed numerous welts on his arm and back saying they were received in a prison camp. THREE FOURTHS OF MEN DROP INSURANCE

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Approximately three-fourth of the four million officers and enlisted men in the military forces who secured government insurance policies through the war risk insurance bureau during the war have failed to continue their payments, it was disclosed during the meeting of the bureau's advisory committee of thirteen, headed by Charles Evans Hughes, which closed last night.

Failure of many policy holders to continue payments and convert their term policies was attributed largely to the fact that the bureau is unable to communicate with them as thirty per cent of the addresses of discharged service men are incorrect.

To secure constant personal contact with policy holders, the committee recommended that the bureau establish local representa- in each state or in such districts as it may seem advisable to divide the country.

RETURN FROM FIVE WEEK TOUR OF EAST

Mrs. R. M. Hockenhull and Party Arrive in Jacksonville Yesterday Evening After Pleasant Motor Trip.

Mrs. R. M. Hockenhull and party, composed of Mrs. Louise B. Inglis and Miss Jeanette Powell of Jacksonville and Miss Elizabeth Hailes of Greenville, with Allen C. Smith of this city, chauffeur, reached Jacksonville Friday evening about six o'clock after a pleasant trip thru the east covering a period of about five weeks.

The tourists left this city early in June going thru Indianapolis and Columbus, O., over what is known as the National Road. They toured thru Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, the White Mountains, the Green mountains, New Hampshire, and back thru Buffalo, and Cleveland. In all they traveled a little more than 3,500 miles and visited fourteen different states. They encountered various kinds of roads and saw a great variety of scenic wonders thru the mountains and in the historic east.

In speaking of the various road conditions Mr. Smith stated that the route they took in going, thru Indianapolis and Columbus, was by far a better highway than the road returning thru Cleveland and Lima, O., coming down thru Danville. The majority of the roads in Ohio are brick and on the whole are very good, but the best roads which the travelers found were in the state of New York, where the macadam, asphalt surfaced, roads are everywhere. One good stretch of roadway is to be found between Ashtabula and Sandusky, O. This highway is of brick and in fine repair.

Other than tire trouble the tourists encountered no inconvenience in any way. The roads thru the mountains are of a sharp gravel and prove disastrous to the rubber shoes of all cars which travel in that section of the country. The trip proved a most pleasant and interesting one and all returned last evening well pleased with their outing.

Electric Washing Machines and Vacuum Cleaners

Articles that once were looked upon as luxuries, and something that only the very rich could afford, have become necessities. The presence of electric wiring in practically every home, improvements in ways of manufacturing, have brought all these articles well within the reach of every person's ability to buy. And the great saving in time, thru the use of electricity, has proven that the use of the articles mentioned above is a genuine economy—the comfort and convenience every one admits.

An Electric Iron for every pressing need

This case is very pressing. A date at 8 o'clock and must make an "impression." No time for the tailor — everybody gone away — but the Electric Iron is right on the job. It's got it all over the old stunt of pressing the trousers under the mattress, too!

There are all kinds of uses for an Electric Iron besides smoothing out the weekly wash. Sometimes it takes a man to discover them.

Men buy almost as many Electric Irons from us as do the women. Not only the married men either.

LABOR SITUATION SERIOUS—BRADSTREETS

NEW YORK, July 18.—Bradstreets' tomorrow will say:

"Business momentum is so great and demand is so heavy and so eager that reflection is hardly yet visible in either trade or industry of the more disturbed outlook in the labor situation or of the further shading of estimates of early planted crops, notably wheat and oats. Of the latter it may be said that winter wheat yields have again been shaded, while drought, scab or other troubles in the west, northwest has cut shipping wheat and other crops' prospects and caused very large shipments of half matured cattle from Montana and North Dakota to better grounds eastward. The crop condition however, an almost complete balance in the much improved reports as to corn and cotton which have continued the gains previously noted. The situation is serious first because of practical aying up of shipping in the upper Atlantic coast holding threats of serious interruption of export trade already feeling the bad effects of demoralized exchange markets and next because the threats of a lockout of building hands at Chicago is a sign of unrest of this class of labor at a time when building construction the country over was never so active. Weakly bank clearings $8,831,626,000."

LIQUIDATION BRINGS CORN PRICE DOWN

Holders Largely Prompted by Financial and Labor Unrest.

Chicago, July 18.—Severe setbacks in the price of corn resulted today from liquidation to which holders were largely prompted by financial and labor unrest. The market then rallied somewhat and closed unsettled 2¾ to 4½c net lower with September $1.90@$1.90¼ and December $1.59¾@$1.60⅛. Oats finished ½@⅛c down and provisions off 55c to $1.30.

Altho at first the beara gave a good deal of notice to the favorable weather condition attention soon focused more on the unsettled demand for foodstuffs.

Meanwhile sharp attention was given also to the increase of labor difficulties.

Oats were governed chiefly by the depressing factors which put corn on the downgrade.

Provisions tumbled with cereals. In addition, labor troubles at th estock yads here added to bearish sentiment and so too did reports of abnormal domestic supplies of meats, butter and eggs.

BEARISH AGGRESSION REVIVES IN STOCKS

Final Session of Week Characterized by Further Erratic Fluctuation of Prices.

New York, July 18.—The final session of the week on the stock exchange, a recess having been ordered for tomorrow, was characterized by further erratic fluctuations of prices traceable in large part to an increase of short selling. Revival of bearish aggression was accompanied by reports which hinted at approaching labor disturbances but these were not confirmed in the highest and best informed industrial quarters. Motors and their better known specialties, oils and equipments embracing the various steel and iron companies, tobaccos, leathers and sundry specialties were conspicuous the transportation division showing relative backwardness. Prominent among the advances of the day were Stutz motors, which made an extreme gain of 10 points to the new record of 124½; Stromberg Carburetor, 4; United States Industrial Alcohol, 4½; American Car 2⅜; Royal Dutch issues an average of almost 2 points; General Cigars 4, and Keystone Tire 4 points, with Missouri, Kansas & Texas leading the rails at a 2½ point gain.

Sales amounted to 1,475,000 shares.

Bond dealings broadened, liberty issues reflecting firmness, the international division holding steady and leading rails and industrials showing no material changes. Total sales (par value) $14,250,000.

CLOSE SUMMER TERM AT FRESH AIR SCHOOL

Four Weeks' Summer Session Has Been a Decided Success—Special Farewell Dinner Served Friday.

The first summer session of the local Fresh Air school closed Friday, and it is the opinion of Miss Hammond, principal of the school, that the experiment has been a decided success. Friday morning there was an attendance of sixteen pupiis, and all thru the four weeks' period the attendance has been good. It has been the desire of the Anti-Tuberculosis society to try the experiment of a summer session, but at no time since the school was founded four years ago has the society been in a position to do so until this year. The expenses for the regular school year are of course paid from the general school fund, the Anti - Tuberculosis Society only furnishing the food which the children consume.

The influenza epidemic the past winter meant an additional handicap to the children of the Josephine Milligan school, many of whom from this and other causes having fallen somewhat behind with their school work. It has been the effort of Miss Hammond to have these pupils regain the lost ground during the summer session and this has been the result in almost every case. One boy who had made a good percentage in other studies fell behind in arithmetic, and by diligent application during the four weeks has conquered addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. A number of the other pupils have also shown a grotifying improvement.

The physical condition of most of the children has also been improved all of them with the exception of two having made a gain in weight. The children have been happy at their work and most of them seemingly would have been glad to continue going to school.

The use of the Academy grounds was very generously offered by President C. H. Rammelkamp, and during the warm days the sessions held out of doors were especialy pleasant. Another pleasant feature of the summer term has been the story hour, made possible thru the kindness of Miss Anne Jackson, Mrs. W. H. Marbach and the two helpers at the public library. Miss Butler of the library force was at the school Friday morning and told a number of stories which the children found most interesting.

A special farewell dinner was served Friday, a most elegant cake having been furnished for this occasion by Mrs. William Floreth. An additional treat Friday was a liberal supply of candy donated by Dr. Josephine Milligan. Needless to say, the children thoroly enjoyed the good things so kindly bestowed. On many former occasions various persons have remembered the pupils at the Josephine Milligan school with some special treat, and all of these have proved very acceptable.

Miss Hammond hopes to leave for Chicago next week, where she will meet her sister, Miss Eva Hammond, and the two will enjoy a a vacation in the great city. Miss Eva Hammond is supervisor of art in the Springfield, (Mass.) public schools, and during the past six weeks has taken an art course at the University of New York. Miss Maude Ryman, who has been most generous in assisting with the school activities left yesterday afternoon for the home of her uncle near Virginia, where she will spend the week end. Later she will go to Liberty Mo., for a vacation of some weeks.

AUTO ACCIDENT ON SOUTH WEST STREET

Yesterday evening about 5:15 o'clock a new Dodge touring car is said to have been coming up South West street, north bound, at an excessive rate of speed, put by some 25 miles per hour. Mr. Rowe had cleared the center of the street and the Dodge struck the Ford on the left side or from the east. The Ford car suffered a broken steering spindle and rod, the leaves of the front spring were twisted and the front axle bent. The force of the impact threw the Dodge car several feet to the east and it struck Dr. Cole's roadster which was parked along the east side of the street but did it no damage. The driver of the Dodge car continued north on West street and Mr. Rowe was unable to learn his identity.

H. M. CAPPS ADDRESSES ROTARIANS FRIDAY

President of Club Gives Interesting Talk on History of the Local Woolen Mills—Is Third of Series of Addresses by Rotarians Relative to Their Own Enterprises.

At the meeting of the Rotary Club held Friday noon at the Pacific hotel the third of a series of talks by members of the organization regarding their own business was delivered by Harry M. Capps, president of the club. Each member is expected to at some time give an intimate description of his own particular line of work and that of Mr. Capps was particularly interesting because he gave in part the historical story of the great woolen mills from the beginning by his grandfather in the '40s, and its development from ox power to the present, when they employ 400 or more persons and transact a business of nearly a million and a half dollars annually. It gave the members present a much clearer idea of this, possibly Jacksonville's largest industrial plant.

Mr. Capps spoke of the foundation of the woolen mills here by stating that about 1840 his grandfather, Joseph Capps, came to this city from Kentucky and started a small wool carding shop. It was then the custom of wool raisers thruout the country to bring their wool to Mr. Capps and have it carded. After the wool was carded by ox power they would take it to their homes, where the women folk of the family would spin the wool carding into cloth. At that early date it was the custom of Mr. Capps to very often take as payment for the work of carding, a part of the wool.

Later the work of the carding shop was enlarged and extended and machinery secured by which the wool after carding was made into cloth. For a time the mills sold only the woolen cloth to various tailoring establishments. At a still later date the manufacture of mens' trousers and womens' skirts was undertaken and these articles were produced by the mills for a number of years. It was not long, however, until the heavy woolen skirt became an unpopular garment and the factory was forced to turn its productive energy into other channels.

The manufacture of complete suits for men was then inaugurated and this work has been brought up to date until today the Capps & Sons clothing is a well known and standard article of mens' apparel all over the country. The factory also took up the production of Indian blankets and many fine blankets of this type have been turned out by the local woolen mills.

Mr. Capps' entire address was listened to with a great deal of interest by the members as it contained a great deal of information relative to the factory's products and methods and gave everyone a better insight into the workings of this big industrial plant.

REMARKABLE BIBLE CLASS

Connected with the Presbyterian church in Virginia is a woman's bible class which is certainly remarkable. It is remarkalbe for several reasons mainly because of its size for nearly a hundred women belong to it and the church is not large by any means. It is strictly cosmopolitan in character, all from every part of the place being welcome and on exactly the same footnng. The good fellowship existing among the members is simply delightful to see. The capable teacher is Mrs. Hough, formerly of this city and connected with the Baptist church here as a teacher of a large and successful class.

Of course much of the success is due to her excellent work and spirit; her tact, energy and knowledge of the scripture. Then too the worthy pastor, Rev. Mr. Wiles, comes in for a share of credit and by no means least is the fine spirit and character of the women composing the class. They have a pleaasnt and profitable time socially and other ways in addition to the regular Sunday meetings and it is so delightful to see persons who do not feel too old or any other way that will deter them from attending Sunday school.

A short time since the writer had the pleasure of a visit in Virginia with his esteemed and long time friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Price, at their beautiful home in the capital of Cass, and while there was invited to attend a picnic enjoyed by this class. By suffrance, possibly, three guests of the male persuasion were present, the worthy pastor and ministerial guest and the writer. The affair was in the grove adjacent to the handsome residence of Mrs. H. S. Stevenson, near Little Indian, the company being taken there in automobiles. The occasion was very pleasant all being so fully agreeable and sociable.

They had a short business session and readiig of reports and then came the supper and such a feast one seldom sees. Delicious fried chicken and all manner of good things accompanying made a menu long to be remembered. Every one seemed at ease and having a good time and the three male guests were treated very courteously tho in such a tremendous minority. The occasion every way was most pleasant as far as the good people of the class were concerned and the guests had reason to be thankful that they were permitted to be present.
